

Identifying my support network:

2020 has been filled with times of isolation and many people have felt misunderstood, isolated and lonely. "Alone" gets to the very heart of the human predicament, and "not alone" gets to the heart of the gospel. God uses His spirit to provide us companionship, He also gives us community.

Use this activity to identify the support network of people around you and God's presence.

